MARKET OPPORTUNITY

The Untapped Demand

Bridging the wide gap between expensive specialty dining and everyday Filipino affordability through high-value Indian meal sets.

Market Gap & Our Solution

The Current Market Gap

Overpriced Dining: Most Indian restaurants in Metro Manila charge ₱450–₱900+ per main dish, limiting access for everyday consumers.

Lack of Quick Combos: Office workers and students lack fast, affordable, pre-portioned meal sets during peak lunch hours.

Fragmented Catering: High demand for hygienic vegetarian, vegan, and traditional halal-friendly meals without accessible suppliers.

The Simhika Solution

Accessible Everyday Pricing: Value-packed mini thalis from ₱180–₱220 and full unlimited sets from ₱299, maximizing volume.

Cultural Alignment: Tapping into the Filipino love for "unlimited rice & gravies," offering exceptional perceived dining value.

Multi-Channel Revenue: Daily dine-in turnover backed by corporate tiffin lunch subscriptions and bulk party catering.

Authentic Regional Thalis

Simhika Kitchen celebrates the rich culinary heritage of India with standardized authentic recipes crafted for high kitchen efficiency:
